DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
REGULATION NO. 24-3

HEADQUARTERS, DEFENSE
INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20301
12 May 1972

TRAINING

DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE SCHOOL RESIDENT COURSES

FY 1973

	Paragraph
Purpose -----	1
Supersession -----	2
Applicability -----	3
Courses -----	4
Quotas and Student Input -----	5
Criteria for Student Selection -----	6
Administrative Procedures -----	7

1. PURPOSE: To provide information concerning the resident courses of intelligence instruction to be offered at the Defense Intelligence School during FY 1973, and to establish administrative procedures governing attendance.

2. SUPERSESSION: This regulation supersedes DIAI 24-2, 28 May 1971 as amended.

3. APPLICABILITY: This regulation applies to all Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) elements and activities. Additionally, it furnishes guidance for use by Department of Defense (DoD) activities and other agencies nominating personnel for attendance at the Defense Intelligence School courses.

4. COURSES: Defense Intelligence School courses are designed to support the following:

a. Intelligence career development programs of DIA and the Military Services.

OPI: DS-7A

DIAR 24-3

b. Intelligence education and training in support of joint commands and agencies.

c. Defense Attache System.

d. Joint intelligence orientation.

e. Application of information science to intelligence.

5. QUOTAS AND STUDENT INPUT: Quotas, class capacities, and anticipated student input for each course are indicated in enclosures 1 through 13. Additional requests for student quotas will be honored up to the capacity of each class, subject to the approval of the Commandant, Defense Intelligence School. Requests for additional quotas should be addressed to the Commandant.

6. CRITERIA FOR STUDENT SELECTION: The criteria for the selection of students for the various courses are listed in the respective enclosures. Requests for waivers are not encouraged, but will be considered, depending upon individual circumstances. Requests for student selection criteria waivers should be addressed to the Commandant.

7. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES:

a. Student selections must be consolidated by the Service/Agency Headquarters. Names of students should normally be provided to the School a minimum of two months prior to the scheduled starting date for each course. Information provided should include the name, rank or grade, service number, social security number, branch/designator, organization and station mailing address for each individual. One copy of orders must be sent to the Defense Intelligence School for each student ordered thereto. Any portion of the quota not confirmed by nominations by the two month point will be subject to reallocation. Initial and follow up data should be addressed to the Commandant, Defense Intelligence School, Naval District Washington, Anacostia Annex, Washington, D.C. 20390. Telephone inquiries should be directed to the School Registrar, 433-2460/2452.

DIAR 24-3

b. Students attending courses of instruction for periods exceeding 140 days are normally placed on permanent change of station orders while attending the courses. Permanent change of station orders should contain assignment instruction as follows:

(1) Army

Student Detachment
Military District Washington
U.S. Army (MDW-7001-02)
Washington, D.C. 20315
With duty station, Defense Intelligence School (student)

(2) Navy

Commanding Officer
U.S. Naval District Washington (BLDG 150)
Washington, D.C. 20390, for administration, and Commandant, Defense Intelligence School, for duty under instruction.

(3) Marine Corps

Company B, Headquarters Battalion
Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps
Henderson Hall
Arlington, Virginia 20380, and,
Commandant, Defense Intelligence School, for duty under instruction.

(4) Air Force

1st Composite Support Group
Andrews Air Force Base
Washington, D.C. 20331
With duty station, Defense Intelligence School
(student)

c. Normally, students attending courses of instruction for a period of 140 days or less will be placed on temporary duty with the Defense Intelligence School while attending a course of instruction.

d. Students will report to the Registrar, Defense Intelligence School, Naval District Washington, Anacostia Annex, Washington, D.C., at 0800 hours on the class starting date. Prior to 0800 on the starting date, students on permanent change of station orders must have reported in and completed processing with their appropriate headquarters as indicated in paragraph 7.b. This normally must be done at least one working day prior to commencement of the course. Students on temporary duty orders are not required to report until the starting date. All military personnel will report to the School in uniform.

DIAR 24-3

e. Civilian students will be assigned, administered, and serviced by their parent organizations.

f. Prior to the starting date of each course, the Commandant, Defense Intelligence School (ATTN: Security Officer) will be notified by the appropriate military or civilian organization that student designees possess the required security clearances as indicated in the respective enclosures. For those courses which require students to have access to SI/SAO information, concurrent with submission of nominations to the School by the Military Departments and agencies, the nominating activity will send a copy of the nominating letter to DIA (ATTN: DS-6), and to the Service or Agency SSO with a request to pass SI/SAO clearance status of nominees to DIA (ATTN: DS-6). If nominees are not currently indoctrinated for SI/SAO, the cognizant Service or Agency should furnish DIA (ATTN: DS-6) information on clearability and authority to indoctrinate for SI/SAO. The time required for completion of extended background investigations, when required, should be anticipated and considered in the selection of nominees.

g. Government housing and messing facilities, except for unaccompanied enlisted personnel, are extremely limited in the Washington area. Neither is under the control of the School. Accordingly, students will be required to make their own billeting arrangements. Government transportation is extremely limited, and commercial transportation is difficult to obtain for trips to and from the School and cannot be relied upon to meet class schedules. There is parking space at the School for student vehicles.

DIAR 24-3

h. Pay, allowances, and travel costs of personnel participating in resident courses at the School will be borne by the sponsoring organization.

2-73	3	4	7	0	0	1

(Class capacity is normally 25 students. Additional or unused spaces may be available upon request to the Commandant.)

CRITERIA FOR STUDENT SELECTION

The Civilian Intelligence Analyst Introductory Course is structured primarily for civilians entering positions as intelligence analysts with little or no experience in DoD intelligence organizations or the Military Services, and those with narrow or limited intelligence experience. Waivers to these criteria may be requested from the Commandant, Defense Intelligence School.

SECURITY CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS

All students must possess at least an INTERIM TOP SECRET security clearance.

STUDENT REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Students should report to the Registrar, Defense Intelligence School, Naval District Washington, Anacostia Annex (Room 116, Bldg. T-5), Washington, D.C., at 0800 hours on the class starting date for class registration and commencement of instruction.

ENCLOSURE 2

DIAR 24-3

DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS' INTRODUCTORY COURSE (6 WEEKS)

(First segment of the Defense Intelligence School Postgraduate Intelligence Course; may also be taken separately.)

PURPOSE

To provide military officers without substantial prior intelligence experience with an orientation to the intelligence community, and with the basic skills and techniques required for initial intelligence assignments; to serve as a prerequisite in lieu of intelligence experience for enrollment in advanced level intelligence training courses at the Defense Intelligence School; and to provide a common base for Defense Intelligence School Postgraduate Intelligence Course students with enrichment studies available where appropriate.

CRITERIA FOR STUDENT SELECTION

Commissioned officers in grade of O3 or higher who serve in DoD reserve components and whose actual or anticipated assignments are to intelligence functions requiring a knowledge of strategic intelligence.

SECURITY CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS

Students must possess a minimum of INTERIM TOP SECRET security clearance.

REPORTING INSTRUCTIONS

Students should report to the Registrar, Defense Intelligence School, Naval District Washington, Anacostia Annex (Room 116, Bldg. T-5), Washington, D.C., at 0800 hours on the class starting date for class registration and commencement of instruction. Prior to reporting to Defense Intelligence School, Naval personnel should report to the Officer of the Deck, Building 72, Naval District Washington (Ph 433-2201/02 after duty hours).

ENCLOSURE 8

DIAOLS/COINS COURSE (3 DAYS)PURPOSE

To acquaint the intelligence community analyst with the concepts, intelligence field content, and operational procedures of the Defense Intelligence Agency On-Line System (DIAOLS) and the Community On-Line Intelligence Systems (COINS). Through a non-technical approach to the subject, the course enables analysts to develop an awareness of, and a user capability in, the DIAOLS/COINS System which will increase their proficiency in information handling and intelligence analysis.
